LOCATION

Grand Hotel is located on Michigan's historic Mackinac Island, overlooking the Straits of Mackinac between Michigan's upper and lower peninsulas. Located high on a bluff, the Hotel's famous 660-foot porch is visible when approaching the Island by ferry boat.

MACKINAC ISLAND

There is a quaint magic on Mackinac Island. No motorized vehicles are allowed, so the beauty of the Island and its historic landmarks remain as they were 200 years ago. Horse and carriage, along with walking and bicycles, are the only modes of transportation on the Island. Guests can enjoy the antique and fudge shops in the 19th Century Village, and tour Fort Mackinac and other historic sites.

THE SEASON

Grand Hotel, the world's largest summer hotel, is open May 6 to October 25 for the 2011 season.

Special early opening: April 22 through May 5, 2011.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Grand Hotel's 385 uniquely decorated rooms offer guests a wide selection of room sizes, locations and views. There are 95 deluxe guest rooms, some with a balcony, as well as 54 Named Rooms. The luxury Named Rooms, which include six two-bedroom suites and one four-bedroom cottage, are appointed to complement each of their names. Named Rooms include the Lodge of Teddy Roosevelt, the Napoleon and Josephine Suites, Lord and Lady Astor Suites, as well as seven rooms in honor of former first ladies: Lady Bird Johnson, Betty Ford, Rosalynn Carter, Nancy Reagan, Barbara Bush, Jacqueline Kennedy, and Laura Bush.

RATES/PACKAGES

Grand Hotel follows the long-time tradition of including a full breakfast and dinner in its room rate. Rates are subject to a 19.5% added charge, 6% Michigan state sales tax, 2% Mackinac Island assessment, and a one-time baggage handling fee of $7.50 per person. Tipping is not permitted within Grand Hotel. Special packages are offered throughout the season including Opening/Mother's Day Weekend, Quilting/Rug-Hooking Weekend, Titanic at the Grand, AAA Memorial Day Weekend, Lilac Festival Package, Grand Hotel Arts Weekend, Michigan Golf Live Package, Fourth of July Package, Wine Appreciation Weekend, Family Added Value Days, Games & Gardens Week, Labor Day Jazz Weekend, Girlfriends Getaway Weekend, Carleton Varney & Friends Weekend, History Weekend, Somewhere in Time Weekend, Murder Mystery Weekend, Ballroom Dancing Weekend, and a Close the Grand for the Season package. DINING AND BEVERAGE SERVICE

With 12 restaurants and bars, Grand Hotel offers dining options available for every appetite. The Salle a' Manger serves a full breakfast and five-course dinner for guests and offers the popular Grand Luncheon Buffet. Other dining options include the Bavarian-style restaurant, Woods, The Jockey Club at the Grand Stand, The Gate House, Carleton's Tea Store, and Fort Mackinac Tea Room. In addition, Afternoon Tea is served each afternoon in Grand Hotel's Parlor as well as evening Demitasse.

OWNERSHIP

The Musser family is the sole owner of Grand Hotel. Mr. Musser, Chairman of Grand Hotel, took over management from his uncle, W. Stewart Woodfill who owned and managed the Hotel since 1933. The Musser's children, R.D. Musser III and Mimi Cunningham, now represent the third generation of Musser family operation. R.D. Musser III was named President in 1989, and Mimi Cunningham serves as Vice President.
